

1st Fridays IP PROTECTION CONTRACT & NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

1st Fridays is a private event where attendees often share with one another information that legally constitutes a trade secret and/or is sensitive, proprietary or personal information that the attendee does not want disclosed to others. To facilitate this sharing, attendees at a 1st Fridays function agree to the following:

that they will not disclose any confidential information learned from other attendees unless the disclosing party consents in writing to such disclosure.

that they will not use the confidential ideas, processes, information and other intellectual property learned from other attendees unless the disclosing party consents in writing to such use.

that this Agreement applies to all confidential information received from other attendees and is not limited to information learned during one 1st Fridays event.

Attendees agree that information regarding a business plan, a method of doing business, an idea for a product or service, new technology, a marketing plan or idea, and a business's financial information are all considered to be confidential information unless (1) the disclosing party expressly states that it is not confidential; (2) the information is or becomes public knowledge through no fault or omission of the receiving party; or (3) the information was lawfully obtained by the receiving party from a third party who is not a 1st Fridays attendee at a 1st Fridays function or event.

Attendees agree that this is an Agreement with each other, that 1st Fridays is not a party to this contract, and the parties hold 1st Fridays harmless and indemnify it from liability for claims related to this Agreement.

Should any clause or provision of this Agreement be deemed unenforceable, such provision shall be severed from the remaining agreement. Effective this date, and all future dates attended.
